He told us briefly of his trip to the Florida coin show after which he conducted a lengthy questions and answer session which was of great interest to all present.

NEWS BULLETIN.

NEXT MEETING: Our next meeting will be held April 23rd at 8.00 P.M.

LAST MEETING: Our last meeting date was combined with our Annual Coin Show and Auction, which was held March 30th. The show was a great success with a paid admission of over four hundred members and visitors combined.

EXHIBITS: There were forty-four cases of very fine material which was judged by Mr. Fred Jewett, Mr. Alex Munroe and Mr. David Ash.

AWARDS: The awards were made as follows:
MEDALS -----Mr. Ed Schroeder
FOREIGN COINS -----Mr. John Curtis
JUNIOR EXHIBIT -----Lee Robinson
BEST OF SHOW -----Roger Fox
HONORABLE MENTION---Mrs. Winifred Mathers

AUCTION: The auction of over one hundred lots of very nice material was compiled by John Curtis and Paul Petch with Mr. Leon Safer being the auctioneer for the evening. Among the lots for auction was a 1889 ten cent piece and a 1913 "broad leaf" ten cent piece, a few key coins and many others too numerous to mention.

One of the features of our show this year was a sales table of coin collectors supplies and materials at very good prices. This is to be a feature of coming meetings and it will afford the members an opportunity to purchase supplies at a reasonable price. It is hoped that members will take advantage of this worthwhile service.

COMING EVENTS: ONTARIO NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION CONVENTION AND BANQUET to be held at Prudhommes Hotel, Vineland, Ontario. April 26, 27, 28, 1963 Admission and Banquet $3.50.

I would like to, on behalf of the Executive of the club thank all those who gave of their time and services to make our show and auction the best to date. North York coin club is making a name for itself among the coin clubs of Ontario and it is through your co-operation alone that we attain these results so, once again thanks.

See you on the 23rd, come, bring a friend and enjoy the fellowship of our club.
