NEXT MEETING: The November 1971 meeting of the North York Coin Club will feature a slide show entitled "European Mints - 1971" presented by Mr. Robert Aaron. The slides will include a set of security tokens used on the premises of the new British mint in Wales. These tokens are used in place of money in the mint, and each employee cashes them back into coin when he leaves the mint. None of these tokens are allowed out of the mint.

WHEN: Tuesday November 23, 1971 8:00 p.m.
WHERE: North York Memorial Community Hall, 5090 Yonge Street, Willowdale.
WHO: You! and any guests. Everyone is invited.!

Don't FORGET your spares for the auction.

LAST MEETING: The October meeting proved very interesting; it consisted of various members giving short talks on various topics:
 Mr. Farrow - described his display of Canadian and foreign paper money;
 Mr. Strong - showed slides which compared, contrasted, and defined proof and proof-like coins;
 Miss Orr - talked about the junk she has picked up over the years, and how certain pieces have become quite sentimental to her;
 Mr. Jewett - talked of some interesting and memorable acquisitions;
 Mr. Farrow - talked on old numismatic publications, books, auction lists, and convention programmes.

BUSINESS: To be discussed and voted on at the November meeting:
 The following changes in the clubs constitution and bylaws were proposed:
 Article V, Constitution to read: No business shall be transacted at a meeting, other than a regular meeting, without a quorum consisting of 25% of the paid up membership.
 Article I, Bylaws to read: Annual dues shall be set by the executive.

NEW MEMBER: An application for membership has been received from Mr. Frank Gosden.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE: This years nominating committee will consist of:
 Mrs. Louise Graham, Chairman
 Mr. Kaj Rasmussen, committee member
