NEXT MEETING: The Christmas meeting has been moved ahead to the evening of Tuesday, December 10, since our regular meeting night falls upon Christmas Eve. The program will feature our annual non-numismatic night. Members who have a hobby other than numismatics are invited to talk about it. Due to the lack of space, however, it would be appreciated if you bring only a token sample of your hobby to display; two or three items at the most. Members who attend this meeting are asked to each bring a numismatic gift of about $1 in value. The gifts will be collected into a pile and distributed among members later in the evening. Each person who brings a gift will receive a ticket entitling him or her to receive a gift, in turn. Members are invited to bring their spouses to the meeting, which will be held, as usual, at 8:00 P. M., at the North York Memorial Community Hall, 5090 Yonge Street.

LAST MEETING: 48 members and guests turned out for the November meeting, to hear Mr. Leslie Brown talk about the Roman Army and its Appearance on Roman Coins. Les is the Vice-President of the Canadian Young Numismatists Association, Secretary of Central Coin Club, and Advertising Manager of the Ancient Coin Society. Those in attendance were very impressed with Les' knowledge of his subject, the ease with which he presented his material and the interesting, uncomplicated nature of his talk.

The Nominating Committee presented its slate of nominations for the 1975 club executive. They are: President - Stanley Clute
First Vice-President - Frederick C. Jewett
Second Vice-President - Paul Johnson
Secretary - Mrs Lucille Colson
Treasurer - George Fraser
Directors - Miss Jean Orr
Mrs. May Bunnett
R. Strong
Junior Director - Jon Jones

When the floor was opened for nominations, Harvey Farrow was nominated for the position of Director, by Jean Orr, seconded by Mrs. E. M. Beatty. Except for the three offices of Senior Directors, the slate was accepted by Acclamation. The three Senior Directors will be elected from among the four nominees at the December meeting. The President appointed Ted Banning 1975 Editor.

OMISSION FROM NOVEMBER BULLETIN: In addition to the three acceptances published in the November bulletin, the following applicants were also accepted as members at the October meeting: Mr. Bob Hutchison, Mrs. Rose Appelton, Mr. Seymour Friend, and Mr. Aaron Friedman. This omission was the result of a misunderstanding by the Editor.

NEW MEMBERS: Applications for junior membership have been received from Mr. Larry Tierney and Mr. Andrew Jurrius, both of Willowdale.

DONATIONS: The club is grateful to the following people for their generous donations: Mr. John Dewyze, and the Jones family.

THANKS: On behalf of the North York Coin Club, I would like to express our sincere thanks to the Canadian Young Numismatists Association for generously giving the club the use of a courtesy table at their recent show, held at the Four Seasons Sheraton Hotel on November 9.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT: The December meeting is the last time that the club will meet in its present, overcrowded room. In a response to the increased and steady attendance since the summer, the North York Coin Club executive has booked the large upstairs room of the Community Hall for our 1975 meetings, starting in January. This move has several advantages: members and guests will be able to move around without bumping into each other, there will be more room for dealers tables and displays, better ventilation, greater capacity of visitors and new members.

COMING EVENTS: March 14, 15, 16 - Numismatic and Philatelic auction by Charlton Auctions. More information later.

March 22, 1975 - North York Coin Club annual Bourse, Book and White Elephant Sale. 10:00 A. M. to 10:00 P. M., North York Memorial Community Hall, 5090 Yonge Street, Willowdale, Ontario.

EDITORIAL: Since this is my last month as Editor of your bulletin, I thought that a few last thoughts on the editorship might not be out of place. I have enjoyed composing the bulletin for the last three years: I hope that I have been able to carry on the fine tradition set by former Editors such as Paul Patch, Roger Fox, and Michael Zigler. Some of the things I have tried to do for the bulletin are: Addition of photographs to the other forms of illustration then being used in the bulletin; an increase in the size of the bulletin from the monthly one-page I inherited from the previous Editor; the addition of more news and human interest items for members; I can think of at least two occasions when your bulletin "Scooped" all the major hobby publications; introduction of a new bulletin masthead. As of January, 1975, your new Editor will be Ted Banning. I have complete confidence that Ted will do an excellent job, and I would like to ask members to give him all your support.

Season's
Greetings

FROM THE EXECUTIVE OF THE NORTH YORK COIN CLUB!
