CANADIAN NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION
ONTARIO NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION

NEXT MEETING - Tuesday, January 25th, 1977 at the North York Community Hall, with the doors opening at 7:00 p.m.

SPEAKER: Charles D, Moore, President of Canadian Numismatic Consultants, whose subject will be

"Canadian Numismatic Investment Advice"

As this is the Club's Annual Meeting, our new Constitution and By-Laws will be presented for adoption.

LAST MEETING: At the December 28, 1976 "Get Acquainted With Your Dealer Nite", a large variety of Numismatic material was examined by the members and guests with much attention.

The Club's new Constitution and By-Laws was reviewed in detail, and adopted in principle.

President Mrs. Louise Graham reminded members of our upcoming Show on March 12th, and urged that material for the White Elephant and Book tables be brought in as soon as possible, preferably this next meeting.

BOURSE TABLES: Again this year a limited number of Bourse Tables will be available. The fee will be $15 for the day, and as usual, first priority will be those persons who took a table in 1976, second priority will be members of the Club, and if any remain unsold then, non members will be accommodated until the 12 available are taken up.

NEW MEMBER: The application for membership of Mrs Doris Fraser

Toronto

will be received and voted upon.

AND SOMETHING NEW! Commencing with this next meeting, the Club will contribute the sum of $2 to a special fund, or pot, or pool (as you like it), to be awarded to the name drawn at sharp 8:00 p.m. provided the individual is present, is paid up and is wearing his badge. If the name drawn is not that of an eligible person, the Jack Pot is the richer by $2, which will be increased by $2 which will be drawn at the February meeting. The names of all members in good standing at December 31, 1976 will be in the Pot. So be warned, be on time and eligible!
