MEMBER:

CANADIAN NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION
ONTARIO NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION

We welcome our members back from summer holidays and hope that all will attend September meeting.

PROGRAM - "Wooden Money". There has been considerable interest lately in this field; some members have requested a program on same. Mr. Norman Belsten will give a talk, show displays and answer questions.

JUNE GARDEN PARTY Twenty nine members and guests attended, hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jewett in their garden - a very hot day but a breeze from the adjoining park made it very comfortable. No meeting was held, simply a friendly get-together by members for a friendly chit-chat. A scrumptious hot buffet supper was prepared and served by Mrs. Jewett and Jean Orr. Mrs. Beatty assisted in serving. A vote of thanks in appreciation was made to the above mentioned. Some of those in attendance were James E. Charlton, President of the C.N.A., and Mrs. Charlton; Frank Rose; Charles D. Moore; Dr. and Mrs. John S. Wilkinson.

COMING EVENTS...

Toronto Coin Club Annual Fall Show, Sept. 24th at Royal York Hotel. Mr. John Regitko, President of T.C.C. invites all members of N.Y.C.C. to attend. The show will have something for everyone; Bourse; Competitive exhibits; Educational Programs; Raffle; Counterfeit detection Seminar; facilities for authentication and identification; Reception and banquet; Award presentations; Fun and fellowship; 1164 lots in auction by Charles D. Moore; 1st session Fri. night at 7.30; 2nd session Sat. afternoon at 1.00. Major Sheldon S. Carroll, Curator of Numismatic Division, Bank of Canada, Ottawa, will be Guest Speaker at Banquet. One of the award presentations will be made by Major Carroll. The highest Award in the Canadian Numismatic Association, the J. Douglas Ferguson Gold Medal, will be made to Mrs. Louise Graham for 1976. At the recent C.N.A. Convention held in Vancouver, Major Carroll made the presentation to Mrs. Graham in absentia; Mrs. Graham was recovering from the flu and unable to attend.

RICHMOND HILL COIN CLUB'S 13th. ANNUAL SHOW; Hillcrest Mall., Yonge St. and Carville Rd., Information Box 386 Richmond Hill, Ont.

N.Y.C.C. TRIP TO COLLINGWOOD; Car pools were arranged by Mr. Jewett to take members to Collingwood; those who attended advise they enjoyed a pleasant trip and day at the show.

SAD NEWS; We are very sorry to advise our members that Kaj Rasmussen, membership #13, passed away on Aug. 1st. Kaj was a founding member of N.Y.C.C. and a regular attendant at meetings until he became ill; was always a loyal supporter of our club and will be missed by all our members.

See you on 27th; Come and bring a friend.
