ONTARIO NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION

PROGRAM The C.N.A. has requested all member clubs to hold a C.N.A. Meeting. Paul Johnson, C.N.A.'s Ontario Director, has planned an excellent program showing slides and will have a display of C.N.A. Convention Medals. Mr. James E. Charlton, President of the C.N.A., will also give a short talk.

LAST MEETING The "On Time Attendance Draw" was won by Daniel Bowyer. Allan Cornish and Daniel Bowyer won the first and second prizes in the raffle. The Guest Speaker was Norman Belsten who gave an excellent talk on "Wooden Money", showed many albums, how he catalogued same, and how he started collecting wooden money for fun and relaxation. An interesting question and answer period followed. Mr. James E. Charlton, C.N.A. President, read the J. Douglas Ferguson Award Citation presented to Mrs. Louise Graham at the Toronto Coin Club Banquet by Major Sheldon S. Carroll. Both plaque and gold medal were on display. Club Treasurer George Fraser gave a fine report on the C.N.A. annual convention held in Vancouver. In his capacity as Club Delegate he had ample opportunity to see all that went on. Paul Johnson was given a round of applause for his Best Of Show Award won during the C.N.A. convention.
