GUEST SPEAKER

MR. RALPH BAGNALL

PRESIDENT OF THE MISSISSAUGA COIN CLUB

The 306th meeting of the NYCC was held on July 28, 1987, at the new NY Memorial Community Hall. There were 25 members in attendance. Harvey Farrow presided.

On Time Attendance Draw - The name drawn for the $10.00 prize was David Votruba, Jr. He wasn't at the meeting! Sorry, David. Next month the prize is $12.00!

Harvey Farrow was the NYCC delegate to the recent CNA annual meeting in Calgary. Harvey reported on the wonderful week of activities....everything from the tours to the mountains of Banff to the bourse and exhibits at the hotel. 12 members of the NYCC attended the CNA convention this year.

George Fraser supplemented Harvey's report with a display of convention memorabilia, including pins, buttons, pictures, and his lovely (?) cowboy hat.

Paul Johnson spoke of his trip through Banff and Lake Louise following the CNA convention. At a souvenir shop, Paul purchased a bumper sticker which read, "NUMISMATICS is BUtiful", plus a coaster with the new loon dollar in it.

The main program for the evening was a presentation by John Regitko entitled "NUMISMATICS OF TORONTO". He had a slide show based on medals related to various aspects of the City of Toronto. Prominently featured on many medals were the new city hall, Casa Loma and the CN Tower. He also showed one medal from the last time that the Toronto Maple Leafs won the Stanley Cup.....1967.

Ted Boxall served refreshments.

Then we tried to have the Door Draw. Donations were received from Hans Lee, Harry Scheinman, George Fraser and Jean Orr. But there were no tickets! The prizes will be held over until next month's draw.

There was an auction of one lot....a world coin catalogue donated by Jim Charlton. The item sold for $7.00, all of which went to the Club treasury.

COMING EVENTS.....

September 12 - the Barrie show;
September 19 - the Ingersoll show;
October 17 - the St. Catharines show;
