Dear Club Member: At a recent executive meeting the dues for 1992 was established: Regular $10.00, Husband and wife $15.00 - one bulletin and Juniors under the age of 18 $5.00. Even though the postage will be going up in the new year to .42¢ plus 7% G.S. T. the club has decided to leave the dues at the same rate as 1991. The renewal notices will be sent out with your November bulletin.

The 355th meeting of the N.Y.C.C. was held on Tuesday, September 24, 1991. The president Ron Zelk welcomed the 18 members and 1 guest present.

The mint box was not passed, LUCILLE COLSON was absent, so our very own BOB PORTER filled in as acting secretary. Thanks BOB.

The on time attendance draw of $2.00 was not won by EDGAR STAHL as he was not present to accept the $2.00 pot, so it will be $4.00 next month.

REMINDER! Starting in October tickets will be 5 (thats five) for $1.00. Prizes will be much to the liking of the membership, so be there.

APPLICATION for new membership, GEORGE BELLEW of WESTON (that's North York for those who are counting) will be accepted in October, will be number 465.

Show and Tell speakers for the evening were PAUL PETCH who spoke on Old Time computer discs, JOHN REGITKO who showed the additions to his Aztec Calendar collection, ROGER FOX who showed us his $1,000,000 U.S.A. note facsimile that he picked up at a Flea Market, and DON ROBB from Waterloo, who spoke on Canadian Tire Fit Stop coupons used in the 1960's. Thank you all for interesting presentations.

A special thanks to JOHN CURTIS for donations to the MINT BOX. Thanks!

Refreshments were served by TED BOXALL at the break and enjoyed by all.

Suggestions for the betterment of the club. This meeting there were none.
