NEXT MEETING: Those members and guests who plan to attend the April 1971 meeting of the North York Coin Club will have the pleasure of hearing new member STANLEY H. CLUTE speak on ancient coins.

The meeting will be held on April 27, 1971 at 8:00 p.m. at The North York Memorial Community Hall, 5090 Yonge St. in Willowdale. Mr. Clute will give an outline on the history of ancient coins, and then will explain the HOW'S AND WHY'S OF COLLECTING ANCIENT COINS.

Ancient coins is a relatively untouched field of numismatics, and I am sure all members will benefit greatly from Mr. Clute's talk, so please plan on attending. The April meeting will also have reports on the results of our coin show of March 20, 1971, plus the auction, the lucky draw etc.

NEW MEMBERS: Applications for membership in the North York Coin Club have been received from the following:
DAVID M. C. THOMPSON (junior)
STANLEY H. CLUTE (regular)

LAST MEETING: The March meeting of the North York Coin Club featured a set of slides entitled "The Early Money of Canada" which showed the pre-decimalization monies of Canada. The commentary was written by Ken Bunnett, photography by Frank Rose, and narration was given by May Bunnett. A second feature was slides of the Bahama Islands, presented by Robert Strong. Both features were enjoyed by members and guests present.

There was one display on hand at the March meeting: The U.S. military payment certificates series "692", and three notes used by Viet Cong troops in denominations of ten, twenty and fifty XU (!). The purpose of Military Payment Certificates was explained by Michael Zigler, who submitted the display.

COIN SHOW: The North York Coin Club held its Coin Show on March 20, 1971 at the Community Hall. The show was a great success, and approximately 750 persons came out. The White Elephant Sale was manned by Lucielle Colson, and Louise Graham, and was very busy at all times.

According to Display Chairman Roger Fox, there were twenty one cases in use. Persons who displayed were: Harvey Farrow, President; May Bunnett, Secretary; Michael Zigler, Editor; Ken Bunnett; Gwen Miller; and Fred Barley of St. Catherines.

Of the nine dealers who had bourse tables at the show, four of them have requested tables at our next show (?) according to Bourse Chairman Michael Zigler.

COMING EVENTS: The Ontario Numismatic Association will hold its annual convention on April 24, 25, 1971 at the President Motor Hotel, 99 Elm St. in Sudbury Ont.
