EDITOR Ted Banning has tendered his resignation due to pressure of university studies; we all wish him every success in the coming term

GOLD COINS We hope our members have been watching the fluctuations, ups and downs. Sovereign and other popular gold coins have declined in price. The regular 100.00 Olympic gold coins appear to be plentiful. The proof have been delayed due to the first supply of blanks being not satisfactory. However, this matter is being straightened out.

N.Y.C.C. COIN SHOW, WHITE ELEPHANT and BOOK SALE

Date has not yet been set, however we are appealing to members who are doing their fall cleaning to keep our show in mind. We do require items for White Elephant and Book tables and will be happy to accept anything you wish to donate; please bring any items to regular meeting or contact anyone on the executive to arrange for a pickup. We are looking forward to our Spring Annual Show to be the best ever.

See you all Sept. 28, come and bring a friend.
