SPEAKER; Don Thomas, former owner of C.S.A.N. Mr. Thomas was the scheduled speaker for Feb. meeting, but unfortunately found it necessary to cancel due to the flu and has promised to attend March meeting and will be accompanied by Mr. Scott McLaren the new owner of C.S.A.N., we are looking forward to meeting you both.

LAST MEETING Carl Anderson's name was drawn for attendance money and was a loser as he was not at meeting; kitty will be 6.00 for March Meeting.

New Members approved and welcomed; #332 Daniel T. Bowyer and J333 Allan Dorfman. Applications were received from Henry J. Burke and Merko Kofic.

Speaker was John Regitko and we express appreciation for filling in on very short notice. John brought a suitcase of numismatic items, many we had not seen before, gave an excellent talk on various items and a further bonus talk on counterfeits; both were enthusiastically received by members.

ANNUAL 1977 SHOW was a success; dealers appeared to be busy; displays better than usual; white elephant and book tables busy; auction by Frank Rose a success; snack bar also. We did miss our Treasurer, George Fraser tho; he was on holidays.
