NEXT MEETING: TUESDAY NOVEMBER 24th., 1981.

GUEST SPEAKER: MR. SAM SNIDER

SUBJECT: "EARLY CANADIAN MILITARY MEDALS"

MEMBER:

CANADIAN NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION
ONTARIO NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION

Mr. Sam Snider is well known at the Toronto Coin Club. He is one of the original members, holding membership #5. This will be his 1st appearance at North York as Guest Speaker. Sam has been an ardent collector of military medals since 1970. He is a member of the Military Collectors Club of Canada, and a member of the Orders and Research Society of England. Do not miss the opportunity to hear this outstanding authority on military medals. Come early and invite a friend.

LAST MEETING:

Fifty members and guests attended the meeting on October 27th. In the "On Time Attendance Draw", Mr. F.C. Jewett's name was drawn. As he was not present, the draw will be $4.00 this month. President Harvey Farrow gave a report on the North York Coin Club executive meeting held on October 9th. 1981. He stated that North York's proposal to host the O.N.A. Convention at the Chelsea Inn in Toronto during February 1982, had been turned down by the O.N.A. executive, and after a lengthy discussion on alternative dates and accomodation, it was decided that the North York Coin Club would not be hosting the O.N.A. Convention in 1982.

The date for our Annual Coin Show will be March 6th. 1982

The meeting rooms at the hall have been booked for the 4th. Tuesday of each month including July and August, excepting December in 1982, when the December meeting will be held on Thursday December 16th.

Due to the large increase expected in the postal rates and increased rates for meeting rooms in 1982, the dues structure has been increased to $7.00 for regular adult members, $10.00 for husband & wife, The juniors remain at $2.50.

A nomination committee was appointed. Mrs. Louise Graham is to be chairman, Mrs. Beatty and Harvey Farrow members. They will give a report at the November meeting with their nominations for the 1982-83. term.

George Fraser gave a short report of the Stratford Coin Show held October 25th./81.

Dr. Marvin Kay and Norm Belsten reported on the Wooden Money show held at the Yorkdale Holiday inn on the 24th.

Paul Johnson gave a report on the St.Catharines show also held on the 24th.

Jack Veffer said he had attended a meeting of the smallest coin club in Canada at Rock Island Quebec. It was a birthday party for Mr. Douglas Ferguson at his home.

Henry Burke announced that Oshawa Coin Club was having their Annual Coin Show at the Mid-town mall in Oshawa on Saturday Nov. 7th. 1981.

Dr. Marvin Kay invited all present to attend the Toronto Coin Club meeting at the Royal York Hotel on Monday November 16th/81. when Officers of the Independant Order of Foresters would be there to talk about the I.O.F. medals.

Norman Belsten was the Guest Speaker of the evening. Norm gave a very interesting talk on Wooden Money. In addition to having 3 cases of wooden money on display, Norm passed around many varieties of wooden money while he explained the different ways a person could specialize in collecting wooden money. He also showed the different shapes and sizes, and explained some methods of manufacturing them. Norm also stressed the fact that as in other facets of collecting a good catalogue was essential. Unfortunately the hobby has grown so fast that the best catalogue on wooden money authored by Norm Wells was sold out. An extensive question period followed Norm's delightful presentation, which was enjoyed by all. Norm was thanked by Harvey Farrow.

The draw prize winners were,- Walter Ciona, John Regitko (2), Jan Bajorek, Robert Klosa, Frank Dennis, Bruce Watt, Ken Kitay, Carl Anderson, Mr. Brennand, Mr. Simpson, Bill VanLaethem,
