Last Meeting:

The September meeting of the North York Coin Club opened with the On Time Attendance Draw. The name of Silvio Viti was drawn and as he was not present, the $2.00 prize was not claimed. Next month's prize will be $4.00

The programme for last month was a special tribute to the members of our club who have held a membership for 15 years or more. Eight of the nine senior members were there to receive their award; Louise Graham was unfortunately still confined to the hospital. Each of the guests were asked to give a brief anecdote in relation to the club or their numismatic background. The master of ceremonies for the evening was Paul Johnson, who filled in for an absent Al Cornish. The sandwiches and fancy cakes that were served as refreshments were graciously prepared by Doris Frazer and her daughter. A good time was had by all.

President Harvey Farrow handed out 22 certificates to members who helped participate in this year's Coin Week Canada campaign.

Paul Johnson made a special presentation of a certificate to our president to honour 25 years of service to the C.N.A.

Reports on the St. Catharines Coin Club Show and banquet and the Huronia Numismatic Association show were given by Harvey. Paul Johnson was awarded a best of show prize at the St. Catharines show for his display on medals and Jim Orr won a dinner certificate as a raffle prize.

It was announced that the North York Coin Club community hall is booked through 1983 and that our club's annual show will take place on Saturday, March 12, 1983. More information will be available in the next bulletin.
