HARVEY FARRON was asked to list the recent coin shows and to give a brief comment on each. NORM BELSTEN spoke on the successful CANMO show and PAT WHITE felt that the Torex Show was not unusual except for the David Medal selling for only $47,000.00.

RON ZELK introduced the guest speaker, PAUL JOHNSON. His topic for the evening was "NUMISMATIC BOOKS". Paul stressed the importance of books and LITERATURE as resources that not only keep a permanent record on every medium of exchange but they intertwine with other subjects and provide exciting research results. Paul used a cross section of his own extensive library to illustrate the many possible areas of interest, such as storing and keeping of periodicals, reports, publications, cataloguing, collection specialities, acquisition of new books, etc. His interesting presentation was well received by the members and PAUL was graciously thanked by RON. THANKS PAUL. Various other members also brought books for viewing.

At the break COFFEE and COOKIES were served by JEAN ORR in the absence of TED BOXALL. THANK YOU JEAN for helping out.
